

The time has come,
I must fly away,
Back to the North Pole,
It's nearly Christmas Day!

I've loved all the giggles,
The mischief and cheer,
It's been such a joy,
To stay with you here.

So keep being amazing,
All the year through,
And know that next Christmas,
I'll be back here with you!

Love,
Elfie x
